

Print as many templates as needed to fit your window shade. Line up red semicircles and asterisks (do not cut asterisks) and tape papers together. Cut off final red semicircle from right side so that pattern is even on both sides. See how-to information online for further instructions.