

Clip Art: Good Things: “Haunted House Treat Bags” (house 1)

from Martha Stewart Living | October 2013 | www.marthastewart.com

Turn plain black treat bags into a tabletop ghost town with a few easy add-ons. Print the clip art (on the following pages) for the doors and roofs on standard white 8½-by-11-inch card stock, and cut out the designs. Use double-sided tape to adhere each to a sealed, candy-filled bag.

Print on standard white 8½-by-11-inch card stock, then cut out the designs. Use double-sided tape to adhere the shapes to a sealed, candy-filled bag.

Clip Art: Good Things: "Haunted House Treat Bags" (house 2)

from Martha Stewart Living | October 2013 | www.marthastewart.com

Turn plain black treat bags into a tabletop ghost town with a few easy add-ons. Print the clip art (on the following pages) for the doors and roofs on standard white 8½-by-11-inch card stock, and cut out the designs. Use double-stick tape to adhere each to a sealed, candy-filled bag.

Print on standard white 8½-by-11-inch card stock, then cut out the designs. Use double-sided tape to adhere the shapes to a sealed, candy-filled bag.

